

PRESIDENT WILSON IS ENTHUSIASTICALLY
WELCOMED. HOME AGAIN

Jackies gather on the stern of the U. S. S. Leviathan to cheer our homecoming President as his ship, the U. S. S. George Washington, comes up the North River. A fleet of forty-two warships and a flock of dirigibles and airplanes met the Chief Executive's transport down the bay and gave an extended welcome all the way up the harbor. From Ambrose Light to the dock in Hoboken the Chief Executive passed between lines of flaming cannon—the voices of righteous war welcoming the apostle of righteous peace.

B. G. Phillips

President Wilson home again. Photographed on the bridge of his transoceanic taxi, the U. S. S. George Washington, at Hoboken last Tuesday.

B. G. Phillips

Borrowed binoculars from an officer of the U. S. S. Pennsylvania enable the Secretary of the Navy to report to the Vice-president, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of Labor that the U. S. S. George Washington is in the offing.

Tribune Photo.

President and Mrs. Wilson photographed with their host and hostess, King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, in the gardens of the royal palace during their recent visit to Brussels.

Keystone View.

A trio of French officers with locked arms are clearing a path through an enthusiastic crowd for the "big three," Premier Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau and President Wilson, immediately after the signing of the peace treaty at Versailles.

Photo received via the R-34 by J. F. R.